

BEYOND IMPACT ADVISORS

Investing for Humanity

Kinder, cleaner, healthier...

- Beyond Impact takes advantage of the societal shift towards veganism and flexitarianism, as well as emerging technologies that permit animals to be removed from the supply chain in a number of industries.
- Beyond Impact was formed in 2017, by Claire Smith, a long-time vegan and highly experienced investment professional, for the purpose of investing in businesses whose products and services are linked to this new paradigm.
- Beyond Impact collaborates with Quadia in the structuring of its funding programs. Quadia is a registered investment manager specialised in social and environmental finance. With over $170 million in assets its investment thesis relies on sustainability as a pillar of risk management and valuation

Beyond Impact enhances sustainability by supporting enterprises whose activities:

- remove the requirements for animal raising and slaughter
- reduce use of water, waste and pollution through agricultural run-off
- avoid deforestation for grazing and production of animal feed
- lower greenhouse gas emissions
- avoid chemical waste through production of leather
- negate human rights abuses in animal processing
- improve nutrition and reduce incidence of preventable diseases
- dramatically reduce overuse of antibiotics
- accelerate our transition to a more compassionate world
